

SIMNE

Simulation In Motion-Nebraska

A Partnership for Emergency Patient Care

A matter of minutes, miles and medical education.

The Trucks

The Trucks

- Ambulance module
- Emergency room
- Control room

The Simulators

The Simulators

- Vital signs
- Breathe, talk, cough
- Bodily fluids and excretions/secretions
- Pupils react, eyes blink
- Cardiac rhythms
- Airway management
- IV & medications
- Defibrillation & pacemaker
- Bleeding control
- Deliver infants

Locations

Staffing

- Educators: Local Paramedics & Registered Nurses
- Central Scheduling & Administration in Omaha

SIM-NE by the numbers

Eclampsia	10
Normal Delivery	50
Postpartum Hemorrhage	9
Shoulder Dystocia	15
Breech Delivery	6

SIM-NE is a partnership of educational institutions, academic departments representing a number of disciplines, charitable organizations, and public agencies that are dedicated to improving the health and well-being of Nebraskans.

Simulation In Motion - Nebraska

unmc.edu/sim-ne

Doug Dekker - Program Manager
402-559-4868 douglas.dekker@unmc.edu

Meg Davis – Assistant Manager of Administration
402-559-5840 megan.davis@unmc.edu

Lori Cooley – Program Associate
402-559-4863 lcooley@unmc.edu

University of Nebraska Medical Center<sup>SM</sup>

BREAKTHROUGHS FOR LIFE.®

UNIVERSITY OF
Nebraska
Medical Center