

SAVE THE DATE: NEBRASKA ASTHMA CONFERENCE FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2024, IN-PERSON OR VIRTUAL

PURPOSE

Examine current asthma topics, treatments, and the effects of social determinants of health on asthma.

TOPICS

- Asthma Endotypes
- Biologics in Asthma Management
- Community Needs Assessments in Asthma
- Effects of Health Disparities on Asthma Management
- Emergency Department and Hospital Asthma Care
- Environmental Impacts on Asthma
- Global and National Asthma Guidelines
- Healthy Housing Updates
- Inhaler Device and Technique Review
- Single Maintenance and Relief Therapy
- Spirometry and Exhaled Nitric Oxide in Asthma

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Attending Physicians, Fellows and Residents
- Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants
- Respiratory Therapists
- Nurses
- Medical and Healthcare Professions Students
- Social Work and Mental Health Professionals
- Community Health Workers

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- In-Person Location: Barbara Weitz Community Engagement Center, University of Nebraska at Omaha
- 8 a.m.–5 p.m.
- Hybrid: In-person or virtual attendance
- Clinical and Social breakout sessions available
- CME, CNE, and CRCE credits pending
- Advance Registration Required

SPONSORED BY

TO REGISTER, SCAN QR CODE OR CLICK LINK HERE