Rural or Community Health Coding & Billing Bootcamp

RHC Billing & Coding Bootcamp is November 8, with registration from 8:00am-9:00am, and the session is held from 9:00am-4:00pm

November 9, the session is held from 9:00am-12:00pm

Basic Agenda
- Documentation vs. Coding vs. Billing
- Introduction to RHC/FQHCs – What Makes Us Different?
- Key CMS References + Using the CMS 1450/1500 Forms
- Billing for Various Payment Systems (FFS vs. Per Diem)
- Treat and Document Visits – A Focus on E/M
- AMA/CMS Requirements for Documentation in the CPT
- Overview of Preventive Medicine services and CMS-covered Preventive G-codes
- Telehealth versus Virtual Communication Services
- Care Management (i.e., CCM, TCM, PCM, BHI, Psych CoCM)
- Code the Full Encounter for Patients, Cost Reports, and Billing
- Review of the various definitions of the "surgical/global package" – AMA/CMS/commercial
- Documenting for Quality Care Reporting and CPT Category II
- Documenting and Coding for Procedures in the CPT
- Review of the "2024 ICD-10-CM Official Guidelines for Coding and Reporting"
- Z-codes and the Social Determinants of Health
- Free Coding Tools for Billing via RBRVS
- Bundling and Claim Scrubbing via the NCCI
- When do we need to use Modifiers?

Required Class Materials
- CPT manual (AMA's Professional Edition strongly recommended)
- Any publisher's HCPCS-II manual
- Any publisher's ICD-10-CM manual
- A .pdf of the class slides will be emailed 1-2 days before class

CEUs/CMEs: Approved for 11 CEUs AAPC/ArchProCoding and 11 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s) (CME) for MD, DO, NP, PA, RN

Cri�cal Access Hospital Coding & Billing Bootcamp

CAH Billing & Coding Bootcamp is November 9, with registration from 12:00pm-1:00pm, and the session will be held from 1:00pm-5:00pm. November 10, the session will be held from 9:00am-5:00pm.

Basic Agenda
• Introduction and Testing Details
• Overview of CAH Designation and Cost-Based Reimbursement
• Introduction/Review of Coding Manuals
• Swing Bed and Inpatient Coding Outpatient/Ancillary Facility Coding
• Emergency Department Facility and Professional Fee Coding
• Same Day Surgery and Anesthesia Coding
• Hospital Professional Fee Coding
• Billing and reimbursement overview for Swing bed, Inpatient facility, Hospital Outpatient facility, and hospital professional fees
• Method I, Method II, and CRNA Pass-through payment option Revenue codes and their relationship to CPT codes, Billing, Compliance, and cost reporting
• Guidance on how improving current billing practices and systems can translate into increased revenues
• Identification of common issues that impact denials
• COVID-19 Coding Updates

Required Class Materials
• CPT manual (AMA's Professional Edition strongly recommended)
• Any publisher's HCPCS-II manual (optional)
• Any publisher's ICD-10-CM manual
• A .pdf of the class slides will be emailed 1-2 days before class

CEUs - 11 CEUs Approved by AAPC & ArchProCoding

Early bird rate for each is $150, or $275 for both. Starting September 22, the rate goes up to $175 for each individual session, or $325 for both.

There is a virtual participation option, and the rate is the same. In-person attendees are provided lunch/refreshments.