ACHE FACE-TO-FACE EDUCATION PANEL DISCUSSION

Mindful Leadership: Leading with Heart and Mind for Healthcare Leaders

Moderator: Laurie Baedke, MHA, FACHE, FACMPE, Director of Healthcare Leadership Programs
Creighton University, Omaha

Panelists:

Kathy Bourque, Patient Experience Director – Great Plains Health, North Platte
Carol Friesen, Vice President of Health System Services, National HFMA Board Chair – Bryan Health, Lincoln
Michael Schnieders, President & CEO – CHI Health Good Samaritan/Catholic Health Initiatives, Kearney

The use of mindful practices like meditation, introspection and journaling have been shown to contribute to the success of leading organizations. Mindful practices support personal and professional growth by enabling leaders to gain focus, clarity, creativity and compassion — qualities which allow leaders to face the myriad demands and struggles of everyday work life. Health care leaders, in particular, deal with challenges and pressures that are unique to the health care climate. Practicing mindfulness can help health care executives more effectively deal with these challenges by teaching them how to approach each situation with focus and clarity to make important decisions, how to be creative and innovative in their approach to health care leadership, and how to be compassionate with others in times of turmoil.

The goal of this session is to make the case for the importance of bringing mindful practices into health care organizations to develop leaders' cognitive abilities to be more effective and compassionate, and provide suggestions for how to implement these practices in an organization.

KEYNOTE SESSION

Passion! 8 Steps to Reignite Yours

Mark J. Lindquist

As working professionals, we could all use a little jolt from time to time. This session may be the only time all year when you take a moment to reflect on the things you need to do to reignite the passion that brought you into the workforce in the first place. World-touring entertainer and actor Mark J. Lindquist offers a keynote that is as entertaining as it is enlightening as he sends you out the door on fire.

Learning Objectives:

- Participants will gain an awareness of the mental roadblocks that stand in the way of progress; this progress can be in our personal lives, the workplace or in the pursuit of our passions.
- Audience members will gain an understanding of the importance of a workplace culture that is dedicated to the development of an individual's strengths. The quickest way to reignite a person's passion for what they do is to develop a culture that honors the strengths of the individual and allows them to make major contributions to the organization within their strength zone.
- Members of your team will leave with an expanded vision for their future within your organization. Many of us feel "stuck" from time to time as we progress through our working lives. Whether it is your first week on the job or you are a CEO of the organization, individuals will leave this session with a new vision for the future that will propel them out of the rut and into an exciting journey toward a passion-filled life in all areas, at work and at home.

Mark J. Lindquist has shared the stage with former U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno, Senator John McCain, Magic Johnson, Edward James Olmos, Grammy Award winning artists Rihanna, Brooks and Dunn, and Brandy; Academy Award nominated actor Liam Neeson, The Band Perry, Craig Campbell, Dierks Bentley, CEO Bob Nardelli (Home Depot), Steve Case (AOL/Time Warner), Ken Thompson (Wachovia), Jeff Swartz (Timberland) and Ben and Jerry (Ben and Jerry's Ice Cream).

Throughout his entertainment career, he has performed for the Tuskegee Airmen, the Secretary of the Interior Gayle Norton, Secretary of Commerce Don Evans, Secretary of Labor Elaine Chao, Members of Congress, Sargent Shriver, Mia Hamm, Tony Stewart, Jordin Sparks, the Washington Redskins, the Atlanta Falcons, the New York Giants, the Florida Panthers, the Washington Nationals, the NCAA, Universal Studios and the Supreme Allied Commander of NATO Europe.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS 1-3

Session 1: Essentials for Succession Planning and Onboarding for a New CEO/Senior Leader

Speaker: Richard Metheny, Leadership Solutions Practice Leader - Witt/Keiffer

Board members and professional staff of proactive health care organizations plan for leadership transition and build a pipeline for future C-Suite talent. This session discusses the basics of succession management that every hospital should know, and emphasizes the importance in helping organizations retain their competitive edge over the long haul and ensure executive turnover does not derail growth and progress. Learn the fundamentals and importance of proactive executive succession planning and the importance of onboarding regarding long-term leader success.

Session 2: CAH Board Financial Governance and Compliance

Speakers: Julianne Kipple, MBA, CPA, CHFP, Healthcare Manager & Kirk Delperdang, Healthcare Manager - Lutz

This presentation will focus on the pertinent issues impacting the board of directors' financial governance of Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs) and compliance issues that the board or rural hospitals encounter that impact the financial performance of the facility. Discussion topics will include CAH reimbursement and compliance, enrollment issues, Medicare Cost Report review and strategies, CAH finance tools, top 10 finance ratios and benchmarks, revenue cycle management and the Chargemaster.

Session 3: Quite a Conundrum: Visiting Specialists and Provider-Based Status

Speaker: Barbara Person, JD, Partner - Baird Holm LLP

Many rural hospitals rely on services provided by visiting specialists to increase access to affordable, quality health care in their respective communities. However, many of these same hospitals also maintain provider-based departments and house visiting specialists within these departments. Over the past few years, it has become increasingly clear that regulators are looking for any opportunity to curtail provider-based status and the real or perceived reimbursement associated therewith. One identified issue specifically relates to the co-location of visiting physician specialty clinics within provider-based departments. This session will provide insight on the latest regulatory developments and legal requirements related to provider-based departments and specialty clinics, and provide some best practices to avoid or lessen potential compliance concerns.

HR SESSION 1

Strategic Staffing in Turbulent Times

BREAKOUT SESSIONS 4-6

Session 4: Physician Financial Relationships: Are You in Compliance?

Speaker: Andrew Kloeckner, JD, Partner - Baird Holm LLP

The financial regulations between physicians and hospitals have never been more complex and fraught with compliance risks. It is critical that those in hospital administration can identify, address and navigate the regulatory and compliance waters when it comes to their relationships with members of the medical staff. This presentation will seek to identify and answer questions about the many compliance pitfalls and traps that exist in physician/hospital financial relationships.

Session 5: How Volume and Expense Charges Impact Cost-Based Reimbursement

Speaker: Todd Kenney, Partner & Steve Parde, Managing Director - BKD CPAs & Advisors

One of the most difficult items for a Critical Access Hospital to track and estimate is the amount of reimbursement they can expect from the Medicare cost report settlement. This estimate is especially difficult during periods with significant changes in patient charges, inpatient and outpatient volumes and variations in expenses. This session will discuss the most common volume/expense drivers of change in cost reimbursement. It will also discuss key Medicare cost report analytics and the relationships they have with changes in the Medicare settlement estimate.

Session 6: Hospital Board Members in a Pickle: It's All About Boundaries

Speaker: Barbara Person, JD, Partner - Baird Holm LLP

Should you tell a Board member that her daughter, an RN at the hospital, will be fired for violating HIPAA? Is it a problem that all the hospital's investments are managed by a Board Member? Real-life case studies will allow board members and administrators to share their wisdom and experience. Each case study focuses on a dilemma for board members related to patient privacy, corporate duties of board members, kickback solicitations, micromanagement, employee circumvention of chain of command, employee evaluation and conflict of interest. Audience discussion will be followed by an explanation of relevant laws.

Learn outcomes from the past legislative session, what changes are taking place in the telehealth field and how your organization can reduce workforce shortage. The panel will consist of CEOs and other hospital executives.

The Nebraska Hospital Association (NHA) is a statewide health care trade association representing Nebraska’s hospitals and health systems. The NHA was organized in 1927 as a result of an informal meeting called by Miss Homer Harris, superintendent of Clarkson, to discuss pending legislation which affected hospitals in the state of Nebraska. At that meeting, the NHA founded and appointed its first board of directors. Rev. Emil G. Chinlund of Immanuel was named president; Miss Blanche Fuller of Methodist was named vice president; Miss Ida Isaacson of Evangelical Covenant was named secretary; and Miss Homer Harris was named treasurer.

Since that time, the NHA has been representing and supporting the needs of Nebraska’s rural and urban hospitals and health systems. The NHA supports and encourages its members in developing various health care delivery systems geared toward improving the health and well-being of each community.

The NHA is governed by a 19-member board of directors that works closely with its membership to provide them with state and federal legislative advocacy, health care trend and regulatory information, educational programming, communication, data reports and special services. Members rely on the NHA for information, education, advice and collaborative leadership to advance Nebraska hospitals’ ability to provide exceptional health care.

Hospitals are the stewards of good health. Through our partnerships with representatives in the health care industry, legislators, government and citizens, the NHA is able to assist in the development of strong, healthy communities. The NHA has been the guiding force of its members since 1927. The NHA serves as the influential voice of its members in the health care legislative and public policy arenas, promoting delivery of quality health care and influencing public opinion of hospitals and health networks. Members depend on the NHA for information, advice, education and changes in health care regulations, legislation, trends and other issues.

MISSION

The mission of the Nebraska Hospital Association (NHA) is to serve its members by being the trusted leader to improve the health, well-being and quality of life of all Nebraskans.

VISION

The NHA’s vision is to be the state’s most influential, trusted and respected voice in health care policy and advocacy, a valued resource for information and knowledge, and a leader in patient safety.

STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK

The Nebraska Hospital Association has been the guiding force of its members since 1927. The NHA serves as the influential voice of its members in the health care legislative and public arenas, promoting delivery of quality health care and influencing public opinion of hospitals and health networks. Members depend on the Association for information, advice, education and changes in health care regulations, legislation, trends and other issues.

To accomplish its mission and serve its members, the NHA has developed a strategic framework that consists of four pillars: Advocacy & Policy, Information & Knowledge, Strategic Collaboration and Quality & Safety.

To uphold these pillars, the NHA builds on a secure values-based foundation comprised of Integrity, Transparency and Accountability. Everything the NHA does is designed to assist our members in their quest to provide quality care to Nebraska’s patients, families and communities.

During National Hospital Week, the American Hospital Association will conduct a social media campaign to raise awareness of the importance of hospitals within their communities. We are asking our member hospitals and health systems to join in this effort to help celebrate National Hospital Week and the great work that goes on every day in America's hospitals.

In particular, we are asking members to explain through social media why their hospitals are important to the communities they serve. There are a variety of ways hospitals can participate, listed below, in addition to general guidance regarding messaging for the initiative.
